The most number of people we can service in one afternoon or evening is 10. If there are more than 10, we would have to offer modified or express treatments. Express treatments are a popular option for very large groups.

Week-ends book up very fast, so it's best to advise us as soon as possible if you would like to book on a week-end. We suggest 6 – 8 weeks advance booking.

2 weeks prior to the event date, you will advise us of the number of attendees and the service choices (refer to options below). We require this prior notice in order to arrange for the appropriate specialists to be available.
